Co-Captains Elected

Steve Wilson and "Plicky" Williams, pictured above, have been elected by their team-mates to lead the Appomattox County High School Varsity Football team as Co-Captains. Steve Wilson, a senior, is an outstanding quarterback for the A.C.H.S. football team. "Plicky" Williams, a 170 pound senior, is expected to play both ways on the gridiron this fall. Coach Jerry Robinson says, "I believe that both boys have outstanding leadership ability and I am looking forward to their leadership carrying us through a winning season."

Varsity football season will open Friday night, Sept. 4th, when the team will travel to Buckingham for a game with Buckingham Central High School. We understand that Buckingham is reported to have a strong team this year. The September 4th game will be the opening game of the season for both teams.

Practice sessions began two weeks ago and Coach Robinson reports that he is pleased with the work-outs, that the boys are really working hard and learning a new system in preparation for the coming season, however, the practice sessions have been hindered a bit by injuries to several players. Lack of depth makes this problem more critical. Both team spirit and moral seem to be high and the approaching season is looked upon with much anticipation and enthusiasm.

Little League 8 Year-Olds Begin Practice Monday

S. L. Ferguson, III, manager of the Little League 8 year - old boys football team, has announced that practice will begin on Monday, August 31st, at 4:30 p.m. at the Appomattox Primary School.

All boys are asked to bring a photostatic copy of their birth certificates and all boys are to be dressed in full uniform.

Any boys who have not yet registered in this age group, may do so on Monday afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

Edward T. Johnson

Services Held For Educator

Edward T, Johnson, 62, died in Lynchburg General Hospital on Saturday, August 24th, after a short illness. Born in Blackstone, he was the son of the late Rev. and Mrs. Ed T. Johnson.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Eula Mae Johnson, the former Miss Eula Mae Patterson of Appomattox, and one daughter, Miss Bedder Viola Johnson of Hampton Institute.

Mr. Johnson attended public school in Martinsburg, West Virginia; he attended high school in Washington, D. C.; spent two years at Howard University and was graduated from Virginia State College, Petersburg, in 1933. In 1935, he moved to Appomattox and accepted a position in the public school system where he had remained for the past 35 years. Mr. Johnson has served as classroom teacher, principal and assistant principal.

Mr. Johnson was a member of Galilee Baptist Church where he served as a deacon in 1938, he was a member and secretary of the Chi Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity and a licensed HAM radio operator. He was a member of the A.E.C., the N.E.A. and the Appomattox P.T. A.

Cheerleaders Win Ribbons

Varsity Cheerleaders of Appomattox County High School returned home last Thursday from the Golden Eagle Cheerleader Camp at Ferrum Jr. College, Ferrum. Attending camp were approximately 435 girls, both Varsity and Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders, from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Maryland. There were 12 instructors at camp helping the girls with cheers and routins.

On the first day at camp, the Varsity Cheerleaders from A. C. H. S. won a green ribbon for honorable mention; on the second day they won a white ribbon for Outstanding Classification; and on the third day they received a red ribbon for Excellent Rating. A blue ribbon was the highest honor given and our cheerleaders are looking forward to winning this award next year.

During the camp session, 5 trophies were awarded to outstanding squads and the group our girls were in won 4 of the 5 trophies.

Appomattox has always had an excellent athletic program and the cheerleaders certainly add to the festivities connected with all sports.

Class Of '32 Plans Reunion

The Class of 1932 will hold a reunion Saturday evening, Aug. 29 with a covered dish dinner at the Appomattox County High School cafeteria. All members of the class are urged to attend.

86,300 Visit National Park

Attendance figures at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park for the first half of 1970 show a decided increase over last year, according to Park Superintendent F. A. Gould.

Figures through July, 1970 show 86,300 visitors as compared with last year's 82,800 through July. In 1968, 75,800 visitors were counted from Jan. through July. Total visitation for 1969 was 130,000, says the superintendent, and he expects the 1970 figure to be considerably higher because of the continuing influx of cars during the current vacation season.

An all-time high in visitor count occurred in 1961 with 156,000 total. This was the first year of 1961-65 Civil War Centennial.

A ten-year record for visitors shows 124,000 in 1960; 156,000 in 1961; 152,000 in 1962; 141,000 in 1963; 132,000 in 1964; 149,000 in 1965 – the year in which the reconstructed Court House was dedicated and special ceremonies at the park marked the 100th commemoration of the signing of Lee's surrender to Grant in the McLean House. The year 1966 brought 130,000 visitors; 1967, 122,000 and 1968 125.000.

Little League Teams To Play Saturday Night

Both the 9 and 10 and the 11 and 12 year - old Little League football teams will play Paul Monroe teams from Lynchburg on Saturday night, August 29th, at the Appomattox County High School Athletic Field.

Game time for the 9 and 10 year - old boys will be 6:30 p.m. and the 11 and 12 year-old boys' team will kick-off at 8:00 p.m., following the first game.

Robert Carter, president of the Appomattox County Youth Association, has announced that because of the rising cost connected with the Youth Program, beginning with the first game there will be a charge of 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for students.

Abbitt Announces Campaign Co-Chairmen

Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt

Petersburg – Representative Watkins M. Abbitt (D-Va.) announced here that three co-chairmen for his campaign for re-election to the Fourth District seat in the House of Representatives.

Delegate W. Roy Smith, of Petersburg; State Senator William V. Rawlings, of Capron; and Delegate Robert E. Gibson, of Chesapeake, will jointly head the campaign. Senator Rawlings will serve as campaign manager, Smith will be chairman of the steering committee and Gibson will head the special projects committee.

Abbitt made the announcement at a press conference and disclosed that there will be a formal opening of his district headquarters in Petersburg after the first of the month. He pointed to the "broad base support" which is represented by his choice to head his campaign and warmly praised those who have assumed their responsibilities.

"I cannot imagine a more well - balanced and effective team than we have and we are prepared to wage a positive and appealing campaign in the next two months in which I hope every voter in the Fourth District will be aware of what we have been doing and our plans for the future," Abbitt said.

He pointed out that already he has announced the formation of "Young Citizens for Abbitt", headed by William R. Hartz of Waverly, and Lewis M. Walker, III of Petersburg, which has been operating the past week out of headquarters at 39 S. Sycamore St. in Petersburg. He has also enlisted as a full time campaign aide George H. Co-ordinator for Peter M. Axson, Chesapeake Commonwealth's Attorney, who recently withdrew as an independent candidate for the Fourth District seat.

"Young Citizens for Abbitt" was organized prior to naming his overall campaign leadership, Abbitt said, so that contacts could be made with younger voters. He reported that co-ordinators have been selected by "Young Citizens for Abbitt" for every county and city in the District and said he is "tremendously pleased with the response we have received."

The Congressman said his campaign organization will be enlarged to encompass all of the 16 counties and 7 cities and that he is arranging to meet with groups in each area. Scheduling of activities has been in progress for sometime and already he has made appearance in most of the political subdivisions.

Senator Rawlings will direct the day - to - day activities involving the campaigning. An experienced political organizer, he is widely known thoughout the District, particularly in the rural southeastern areas. He succeeded Mills E. Godwin, Jr. in the State Senate when the latter became Lieutenant Governor in 1968.

Smith, an official of A. H. Robins Company, is one of the most influential members of the General Assembly. In addition to being chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, he is past chairman of the Democratic Caucus and has taken a leading role in education matters in the state. He was elected to the House in 1952 and is known as one of its busiest members.

Gibson, a lawyer, is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College and the University of Richmond Law School and is widely known and popular among voters in Tidewater Virginia. He too has had much experience in organizing and will be useful to the Abbitt campaign because of his association with Chesapeake.

Abbitt has served in the House since he won a special election on February 17, 1948 to succeed the late Patrick H. Drewry of Petersburg. He began serving a District which included 15 counties and the cities of Petersburg and Hopewell. In 1952 the city of Suffolk and Nansemond, Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties were added and Mecklenburg and Brunswick counties were shifted to the Fifth District.

Abbitt Cites Pressure From Outside District

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt, D-Va., said Thursday outside forces are invading Virginia's 4th Congressional District to accomplish massive voter registration before the Nov. 3 general election.

Abbitt said a group called "Vietnam Moratorium Committee" cooperating at the National Institutes of Health National Institutes of Mental Health (NIH-NIMH) and using a District of Columbia telephone number under the code name "Dial A Dove" is openly soliciting the support of workers in the Washington area for this purpose.

In a mimeographed news release distributed to news media, Abbitt said his attention was called late last week to the recorded "Dial A Dove" message, which at that time referred listeners to a Marie Pinho at her office and home telephone listings.

Subsequent investigation, Abbitt said, disclosed the office telephone number as that of a department of the National Institutes of Health, a federal agency.

• • •

After objections had been raised by another congressman, he said, reference to the office number was deleted but the rest of the recording still carries the same message.

Abbitt said it is reported Marie Pinho is employed by the governmental agency, at an annual salary of $16,700 and is a District of Columbia resident.

He said he is checking into further aspects of the matter but believes the Vietnam Moratorium Committee at NIH-NIMH is tied in with a number of what he called ultraliberal groups outside Virginia openly supporting Ben Ragsdale of Petersburg, an Independent candidate in the 4th District race.

Included in these, Abbitt said, is the Congressional Action Fund, headed by former U. S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, and Referendum 70, an organization seeking to elect liberal candidates to office this fall.

"It is clear that by their urging of registration in the 4th District these individuals, practically all of whom live in the Washington, D. C. area, are attempting to act in a partisan way in connection with an election which is the prerogative of the voters of this district," Abbitt said. "I believe that the electorate in the 4th District will resent this intrusion and will act accordingly."

Abbitt also is opposed by a Republican, Dr. James Helms of Farmville.

All-Stars Win Tournament

The All-Stars of the Appomattox Minor League won all four of their games played at Keysville, thus becomming champions of the tournament. The All-Star players, previously selected by the managers of all five of the Minor League teams, easily won out against Halifax with final scores of 27-2 and 11-7 and beat Charlotte Court House with scores of 7-3 and 12-7.

Players not available for picture were Carl Watson, Fontaine Lewis, Barry Doss and Ronnie Preston.
